To all whom it may concern

In last October I made application to Maj. Genl. Sherman, then in Command at Memphis, Tenn, for possession of Mill on Jefferson st. as the Attorney of Capt. Wesley Conner, of the United States Army, who had been a resident of Memphis Tenn, before the War and had been driven away from Memphis by one P. P. Frame, who had, after he had succeeded in driving Conner away taken possession of said Conner's property.

I then learned that F. Y. Carlisle had protected him (Conner) from violence from said Frame, and other hot secessionists, and had also lent him Conner money to take his family from Memphis during the reign of the Rebellion at said place.
