PAINE.—JUNIUS MILTON PAINE was born in Fayette county, Tennessee, January 1, 1852, and died at the residence of his parents, Junius E. and Louisa Paine, on the 24th day of August, 1872, aged ten years, seven months, and thirty-three days.

Milton was a boy of marked character. Remarkable for his truthfulness, nothing could swerve him from the strictest veracity in all he said. No fear of correction ever deterred him from telling the truth. He had very defined sensibilities, producing in him the highest regard for the feelings of others. He could not be persuaded to do anything that would offend his teacher (a lady) or that might seem to be disregardful of her wishes. He was noble in all the elements of his youthful character.

He suffered greatly in his last illness, and had once before, by an accident, been on the very verge of death; but now he has passed beyond the reach of accidents and the ills of earth to a home in the land of rest. May God sanctify the dispensation to the good of his parents, brothers and sisters.
