Memorandum

Malachi W. Pollard "took, by accident, the "wrong medicine" and died a few hesitate, according to his family physician, Dr. Ben Paschall of Arrington and his daughter "Mattie" who was 15 yrs old at the time of his death - in 1871.

He had been complaining with back trouble", some time. (K.C.H. 3-11-'69)

His wife Mary Kate Patton continued to "maintain the 600 acre farm" and rear their family of seven, during the "Reconstruction Period" "without a vestige of debt", as did her daughters, Julia and Ida (their part of it) for near half a century, after her death.

In addition to the "farm" & six other children "grandma" had the personal "care" of her semi-invalid daughter, "Sally" for near half a century - which was [illegible] with great fortitude & dignity -
