Seldom indeed has our Community experienced so severe a loss as in the decease of this worthy & esteemed fellow citizen. Though of retired, secluded habits, his Character was known to the World through the Medium of active & extensive business operations, having been for many years a prominent & successful Tobacco Dealer & Manufacturer. & it was known but to be approved. While he maintained the universal confidence & esteem of those who knew him, but particularly he enjoyed no less the friendship & affection of his more intimate & familiar associates. He was just to a proverb. liberal, & public spirited. remarkable for his disinterested Charity & possessed with all a sterling independence of Character which was the crowning jewell of his virtues, & placed his good name above cavil & reproach. Enterprising, but prudent & sagacious in business, accumulated a considerable fortune. But alas! for the instability of human prospects! he has been swept as with the breath of the Destroyer from our Midst, & from the enjoyments of his toil bought harvest. We shall not attempt here a labored eulogy. the name of John H. Prandfit does not need it he leaves behind him the best testimony of his worth. the regret of the whole Community.

"Sacred be the good man's Memory"!

"Requiescat in pace"!
