ONE OF RUTHERFORD'S OLDEST CITIZENS DEAD.

Special to the Banner.

Murfreesboro, Tenn., February 17.—A telegram was received last night from Atlanta apprising the family of Mr. Joseph Ransom of his death in that city. News had been received earlier in the day of his dangerous illness, and while his death was sudden, it was not wholly unexpected. His remains will be brought here to-night, and the funeral services will be conducted at his late residence on the Salem Turnpike sometime during Sunday and interment will follow at Evergreen Cemetery. Mr. Ransom was one of the wealthiest and most progressive farmers in Rutherford County. He resided upon a large plantation and occupied a splendid home which was erected in ante-bellum days and which had been preserved as one of the landmarks of a fading and in these times an unapproachable civilization. Rutherford County has had few men more upright and highly esteemed than Mr. Ransom. He was 77 years old, and leaves a devoted wife and five children, Mrs. B. W. Cooper, Mrs. J. R. Biles of McMinnville, Mrs. Charlie Cullum, Mrs. A. R. King and Miss Ella Ransom.

JOSEPH RANSOM.

One of Rutherforrd County's Most Prominent Citizens Dies While En Route to Florida.

While enroute to Florida, having left here on Monday of last week, Joseph Ransom was compelled to stop at Atlanta, on account of becoming very ill. A telegram Friday apprised his family here of his death.

His remains were prepared for burial and shipped here for interment.

Mr. Ransom was one of the wealthiest and most progressive farmers of this county, upright and scrupulously honest. He was of a jovial, genial disposition and was highly esteemed among a large circle of acquaintances. In his death the county suffers a distinct loss. He was a loyal member of the Baptist Church and he was a Christian in the true sense of the word. He was 77 years old at the time of his death. Mr. Ransom leaves a devoted wife and five children, Mrs. B. W. Cooper, of Nashville; Mrs. J. R. Biles, of McMinnville; Mrs. Chas. Cullom, Mrs. A. R. King and Miss Ella Ransom.

His funeral was held at the residence, three miles from town on the Salem pike Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock by Rev. E. E. Folk, of Nashville, assisted by Rev. G. A. Morgan and Rev. J. W. Cullom. Burial in Evergreen Cemetery.

Sad Death.

Lillian, aged six years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert R. King, who reside on the Franklin road, died last Friday morning. She was a sweet child, and the parents are heart broken over her death. Prayers were said at the residence by Rev. A. C. Davidson Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. Burial at Evergreen Cemetery at 11 o'clock.

The parents have the sincere sympathy of The Home Journal.

Mr. Joseph Ransom died suddenly in Atlanta on his way to Florida last Friday. He had been in rather bad health for some time but was not thought to be dangerously ill. The remains were brought home reaching here Saturday evening. The funeral services took place at the residence on the Salem pike Sunday afternoon and were conducted by Rev. E. E. Folk assisted by Rev. G. A. Morgan and Rev. J. W. Cullom. The burial was had at Evergreen Cemetery.
