Kerrs Run — His squirrel Hunters discharge "says for services rendered Sept. 1862

To watch for Raiders that did not come (could'nt get across) U & C. feared he'd shoot a cowardly citizen more than a raider — Lived & died peaceably must have been near 80 yrs of age then — Only one other man in County had a like Discharge and we thought, perhaps, it was a Compliment to his age

Mr Randal Stivers, Grand Pa's Cousin of Des Moines near 90 years of age says my Grand Pa's — Grand father (Randal 1st) was a weaver at Mendon N. J. During the Revolution British took possession of his looms, orchards, and every thing possible was destroyed, a few years afterward one of his sons was in a Company where one told of his exploits in the war, and related this as one incident — The son immediately gave him a hearty horse whipping.
