Sir:-

On the 12th I permitted Rev. W. C. Gray, J. C. Fleming and Jerome B. Hill to visit you - they having refused to take the oath and uniting on the protection of their parole, granted by Gene. Curtis.

You allowed them to return to Bolivar untie further orders. I advise that they be ordered up. Their conduct is defiant, and their example bad. With them I wish to send up some others, who in the recent trouble, have shown their hands. I will send them in Charge of Capt. Feldkamp, Capt. of Roort Guard who was formerly a Chicago Detective, has done well here, and can explain much that cannot be written.

Yours &c
