There are now confined in the Fort four desperate men who are hard to keep in confinement.

They are

George. W. Simmons
George Woods
Robt Shankle
Chas Wadsworth.

I have carefully examined the case of each and am fully satisfied that they should be confined in some safe place during the war.

I respectfully ask the order of the Maj Genl Comdg to send them to Alton to be kept until released by competent authority

Respectfully
James C Veatch
Brig Genl.
