Chas. Ingles being duly sworn says:—

My name is Charles Ingles I am an Attorney at Law. on last sunday I ~~was~~ employed by Mrs. Petty, Mrs. Gamble, Miss White and Miss Childress ladies from ~~who had~~ Mississippi who had been arrested for smuggling and fined by the Provost Marshal ~~they having [illegible]~~ to defend their case. or have their fines remitted — The ladies, my clients having purchased their goods from Mr Kraus. a merchant of Memphis and Messrs Lowenstine's also merchants of Memphis — I went to the said firms, unauthorized by my clients, but for their benefit — I conducting their case — I proposed to H. Lowenstine that if he would pay the ladies about five hundred dollars — for their goods — which had been taken from them — and also to pay the fine assessed — and defray the expenses incurred by their arrest that it would be better ~~from~~ for him - as he would not get into a difficulty as the ladies would then have and would not appear against them - I met Mr H Lowenstine in a Barber shop - where this conversation occurred -

Chas Ingels,
