Major General Rousseau,

Sir, I have long been acquainted with the gentlemen who will hand you this – Theo. L. Collier and W. B. Ross, citizens of Dickson County. They are most respectable orderly, and highly-esteemed gentlemen, and I am satisfied, have never been, in any way or to any extent, voluntary aiders of the rebellion. Whatever Mr. Collier and Mr. Ross will undertake to do, will be performed with perfect integrity.

Most respectfully &c

Edwin Paschal (Ed. Press)
