Gen L Rousseau

Dear Sir

When I was in Nashville last Mr McCarty and I was talking of making a trade in regard to a few Barrels whiskey which you said you thought you might permit me to bring out to my house. I left a Jack there which was traded to him for whiskey If you will permit J. W. Champ & I. Joid to bring a Barrel each you will confer a great favor on me. The whisky shall not cross Duck River

Respectfully

J. M. Patterson
