WHEREAS, in providing for the domestic tranquility of the community as a whole, society recognizes the need for a system of laws; the enforcement of the law has been entrusted to a small number of dedicated individuals who daily face the rigors of human conflict in protecting those whom they so selflessly serve; and

WHEREAS, the people of Tennessee are fortunate to be served by the brave and dedicated law enforcement officers who put their lives on the line while carrying out their essential duties; and

WHEREAS, Officer David Scott and Officer Yamil Baez-Santiago of the Clarksville Police Department were two such outstanding public servants; citizens across the state and the members of the General Assembly were greatly saddened by their tragic and untimely deaths in the line of duty on June 7, 2002; and

WHEREAS, both men truly enjoyed being a police officer, and they evidenced uncommon dedication to their duties despite the long hours and the uncertain and often dangerous nature of their profession; and

WHEREAS, Officer Scott and Officer Baez-Santiago performed their appointed duties in an admirable manner that distinguished them as a credit to both their community and their profession; Clarksville was undoubtedly made a better and safer place to live during their service; and

WHEREAS, a great tragedy befell the State of Tennessee on the fateful day of June 7, 2002, when Officer David Scott and Officer Yamil Baez-Santiago lost their lives while pursuing a robbery suspect on the 101st Airborne Division Parkway (State Route 374); and

WHEREAS, the citizens of Clarksville, and indeed the entire State, felt the deep pain produced by this terrible and wasteful loss of two of our best and brightest law enforcement officers; and
