Price per Ticket,

Event Description: Participants will purchase a numbered ticket (1-300) for $50. A corresponding barrel of numbered balls is established. Balls are drawn out of a barrel one-by-one until only 3 balls remain. The last ball drawn wins the grand prize of $5,000.00, the next to last ball wins $1,000.00, and third from last ball wins $500.00 (total cash prize of $6,500.00 versus revenue of $15,000-300 balls). A disinterested "Master of Ceremonies" conducts the reverse draw. Door prizes to non-winning numbers are given throughout the event. All balls, after drawing from the barrel, are placed on a numbered grid corresponding to that number to insure all balls are counted for. Winners of the 3 grand, ie cash, prizes do not have to be present to win. Winners of door prizes must be in attendance to win.

Social Security Numbers, names and addresses of the 3 cash winners are collected upon exchange of the prize. A 1099 MISC is issued to each of the winners.
