Event Description: The raffle takes place during an outdoor concert. Attendance to the concert is free, but tickets are $100 each to enter the raffle. The evening of the event, all tickets are put into a raffle drum to be drawn in a reverse-raffle style. Every few minutes, a ticket is pulled from the drum and time stamped to show the exact time withdrawn from the drum. All tickets are pulled from the drum by organization committee members. The last ticket left in the drum is the winner of the prize of $10,000 plus taxes paid. All contact information for those who buy tickets is recorded at purchase, so the individual does not have to be present the night of the event to win. They will be contacted regardless of attendance.
