Event Description: Perforated, pre-numbered tickets numbering 001 to 500 will be sold. Buyer will keep part of ticket number and event information; Seller will keep stub with number and buyer information. Stub will be placed in a small container (such as a film canister) and then placed in a large tumbler. The name of the buyer with the corresponding ticket number will be entered into an excel spreadsheet. The spreadsheet, in grid form, will be projected onto a screen for attendees to view. The tumbler will be rotated several times and a container removed by a board member. The stub will be removed from the container and that name read aloud by the Emcee for the event.

The corresponding name will then be removed from the electronic grid.

The process (steps 5 through 7) will continue until one container and one name remains on the electronic grid. The buyer is then declared the winner. The winner does not have to be present to win.

The prize money can be split by 5 or less buyers if those buyers all agree to do so.
