Event Description: The assigned location is marked off into equal size squares and the complete game board is surrounded by a fence. We have our designated OX, Benjamin, that we put on the inside of this fenced area and allow him to roam around and gaze. When he is ready, he will leave his deposit, thus determining the winning square. If the deposit covers more than one square the winner will share the prize money. If the winning square was no purchased tickets all the purchased ticket will go into a drawing and the one picked out will be the winning ticket. Winners do not have to be present to win.
