Event Description: The ducks will be sold for $5.00 each and each person will be given an adoption ticket displaying their number. The ducks will be released from the back of a dump truck off the Cumberland River Bridge into the water. We will have boats in the water with a catching net and have a person designated as a judge (total of 3) in the boats to determine the winner. We will have a photographer for a photo finish. First place duck to cross the finish line will win $2,500, second duck will win $1,500, and third place will win $750. We will also give $100 to the last duck winner that crosses the finish line. Ticket holders do not have to be present to win.
