The Tennessee Student Assistance Corporation received no comments pursuant to the Rulemaking Hearing October 5, 2015.

Regulatory Flexibility Addendum

Pursuant to T.C.A. §§ 4-5-401 through 4-5-404, prior to initiating the rule making process as described in T.C.A. § 4-5-202(a)(3) and T.C.A. § 4-5-202(a), all agencies shall conduct a review of whether a proposed rule or rule affects small businesses. The statute requires that as a part of its analysis, each agency shall prepare an economic impact statement as an addendum to each rule that is deemed to affect small businesses, which shall be published in the Tennessee Administrative Register, filed with the Secretary of State's Office, and made available to all interested parties, including the Secretary of State, Attorney General, and the House and Senate Government Operations Committees.

The agency shall consider without limitation, certain methods of reducing the impact of the proposed rule on small businesses while remaining consistent with health, safety and well-being and those methods are as follows: the extent to which the proposed rule or rules may overlap, duplicate, or conflict with other federal, state, and local governmental rules; clarity, conciseness, and lack of ambiguity in the proposed rule or rules; the establishment of flexible compliance and/or reporting requirements for small businesses; the establishment of friendly schedules or deadlines for compliance and/or reporting requirements for small businesses; the consolidation or simplification of compliance or reporting requirements for small businesses; the establishment of performance standards for small businesses as opposed to design or operational standards required in the proposed rule; and the unnecessary creation of entry barriers or other effects that stifle entrepreneurial activity, curb innovation, or increase costs.

Description of Proposed Rule

The proposed rules act to adopt changes to the Tennessee Promise Scholarship Program Chapter 1640-01-26 as proposed rules, making various clarifications to existing language and revisions to the rule pursuant to the passage of 2015 Tenn. Pub. Acts Ch. 186, which allows a student to enroll in less than full-time attendance in the semester of graduation if full-time attendance is not required to complete the program; allows for a leave of absence for military service and fulltime enrollment while waiting for acceptance into an eligible program of study; allows partnering organizations to serve students residing in counties outside their service area if attending high school in their service area; and states that institutions shall apply tuition waivers and discounts before the use of gift aid.

Regulatory Flexibility Analysis - Methods of Reducing the Impact of Rules on Small Businesses

1. Overlap, duplicate, or conflict with other federal, state, and local governmental rules:

The proposed rules will not overlap, duplicate, or conflict with other federal, state, and local governmental rules.

2. Clarity, conciseness, and lack of ambiguity in the rule or rules:

The proposed rules were patterned to ensure clarity and conciseness of the language of the rules and to eliminate possible ambiguity in the interpretation of the rules.

3. Flexible compliance and/or reporting requirements for small businesses:

The proposed rules were drafted to facilitate administration of the program for eligible postsecondary education institutions.

4. Friendly schedules or deadlines for compliance and/or reporting requirements:

TSAC worked diligently with the postsecondary financial aid community, the Tennessee Higher Education Commission, Tennessee Board of Regents, and Tennessee Colleges of Applied Technology, University of Tennessee System, and partnering organizations that are most directly affected by these proposed rules to ensure that proposed compliance and reporting requirements can be practically applied by eligible institutions administering the program.

5. Consolidation or simplification of compliance or reporting requirements:

The proposed rules were drafted to ensure solid, easily interpreted, compliance and reporting requirements.

6. Performance standards for small businesses:

TSAC expects the eligible institutions engaged in the administration of the Tennessee Promise Scholarship Program to comply with all applicable rules.

7. Barriers or other effects that stifle entrepreneurial activity, curb innovation, or increase costs:

The proposed rules do not contain any foreseeable inhibitors to small business entrepreneurial activities.

Furthermore, the statute requires that the agency, as part of the rulemaking process for any proposed rule that may have an impact on small businesses, shall prepare an economic impact statement as an addendum for each rule. The statement shall include the following: the type or types of small businesses and an identification and estimate of the number of small businesses subject to the proposed rule that would bear the cost of, and/or directly benefit from the proposed rules; the projected reporting, recordkeeping and other administrative costs required for compliance with the proposed rule, including the type of professional skills necessary for preparation of the report or record; a statement of the probable effect on impacted small businesses and consumers; a description of any less burdensome, less intrusive or less costly alternative methods of achieving the purpose and/or objectives of the proposed rule that may exist, and to what extent, such alternative means might be less burdensome to small businesses; a comparison of the proposed rule with any federal or state counterparts; and analysis of the effect of the possible exemption of small businesses from all or any part of the requirements contained in the proposed rule.

Economic Impact Statement

1. Types of small businesses directly affected:

Not applicable. The proposed rules were drafted to facilitate administration of the program for the eligible postsecondary institutions and should have no impact on small businesses.

2. Projected reporting, recordkeeping, and other administrative costs:

There are no significant changes in reporting, recordkeeping, or other administrative costs that will result from the promulgation of these proposed rules.

3. Probable effect on small businesses:

Not applicable.

4. Less burdensome, intrusive, or costly alternative methods:

As these proposed rules present no foreseeable cost to the eligible postsecondary institutions, there is no alternative method to propose.

5. Comparison with federal and state counterparts:

There are no federal or state counterparts to the issues addressed by these proposed rules.

6. Effect of possible exemption of small businesses:

There will be no exemptions created by these proposed rules.

Impact on Local Governments

Pursuant to T.C.A. §§ 4-5-220 and 4-5-228 “any rule proposed to be promulgated shall state in a simple declarative sentence, without additional comments on the merits of the policy of the rules or regulation, whether the rule or regulation may have a projected impact on local governments.” (See Public Chapter Number 1070 (<http://state.tn.us/sos/acts/106/pub/pc1070.pdf>) of the 2010 Session of the General Assembly)

2015 Tenn. Pub. Acts Ch. 186 provides rulemaking authority for the revisions necessitated by the enactment of the legislation.
