TAPS HAS SOUNDED

James A. Daniel, of, died at the residence of his son, J. C. Daniel, Jr., on Market street, Tuesday morning, aged seventy-two years. The deceased was a native of Todd County, Ky., and came here after the death of his wife some years ago. He had been a member of the Christian Church for fifty-two years, and was a good citizen. He was the father of eight children, six of whom survive—three sons and three daughters—two of them being E. T. and J. C., who are well known to our people. Mr. Daniel was a popular man in the community in which he had lived, and was affectionately called "father" by nearly all his neighbors. The remains were sent to Elkton, Ky., for interment, after funeral services at the residence here, conducted by Elder R. M. Giddens.

DEATHS

Tuesday morning at an early hour the 14-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Daniel died at the family residence on Market street, of congestion after a illness of only a few hours. The remains were interred at the family burying ground on Paris, Route 1.
