MARRIAGES

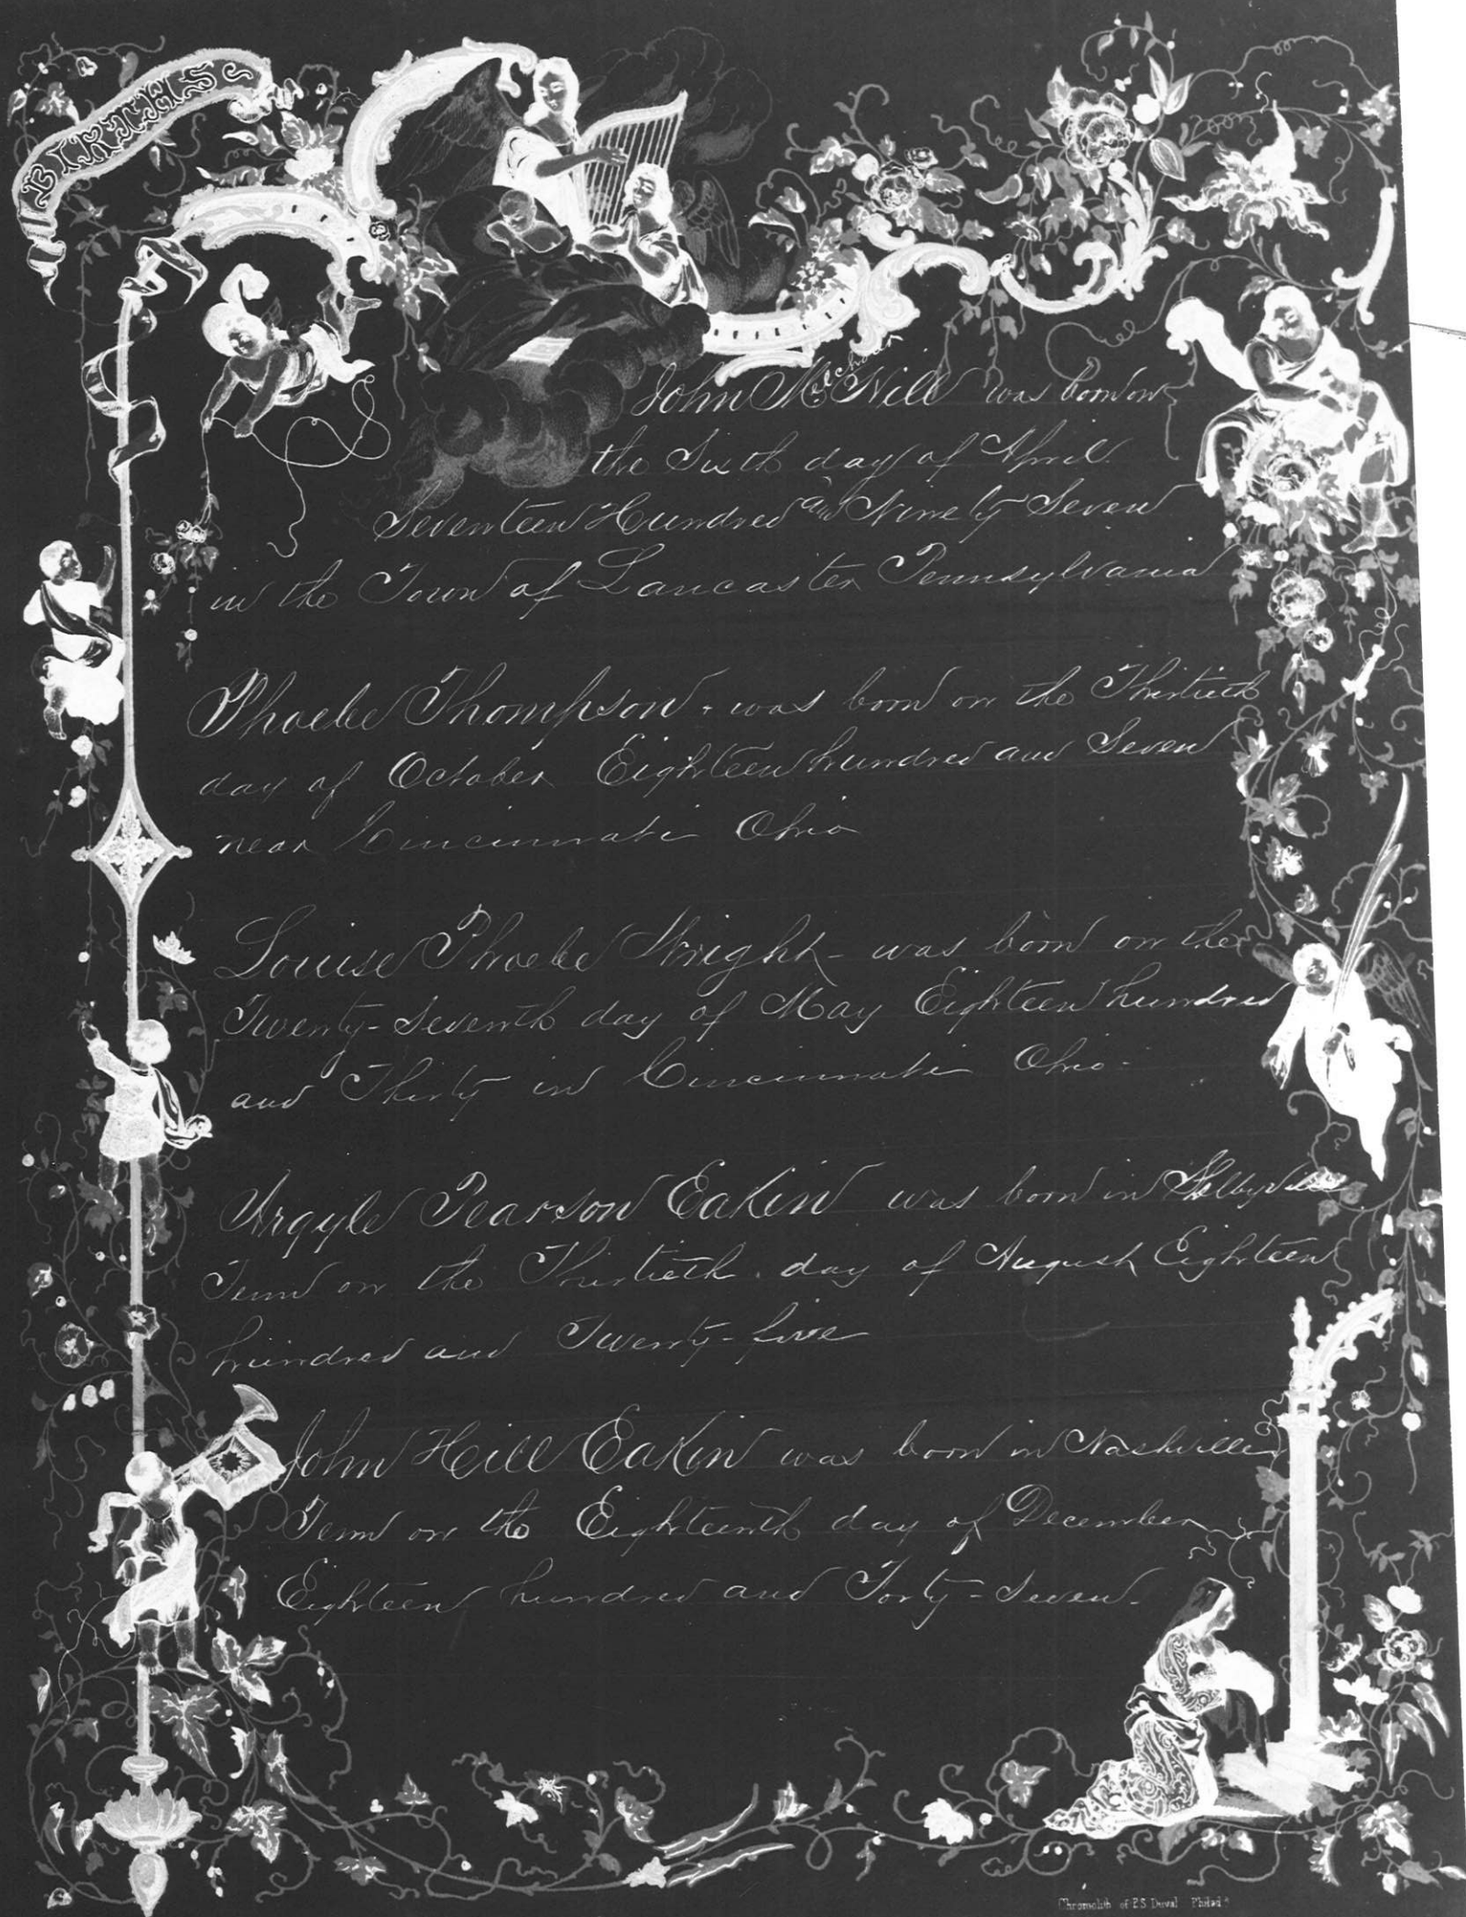
Hill – Thompson – John M. Hill and Thaise Thompson were married on the Twenty-first of July, Eighteen hundred and Twenty-four – by the Rev Richard Dabbs –

Hill – Markley – Cahleb Hill and Sarah Markley were married on the Eighteenth day of May Seventeen hundred and Ninety-three at the ages of 21 and 20 years respectively –

Eakin – Wright – Argyle P. Eakin and Louis P. Wright were married on the Fifteenth day of December Eighteen hundred and Forty-six by the Rev Jno T. Edgar –

Evans – Eakin – Thomas W. Evans and Louise P. Eakin were married on the Twentieth day of May, Eighteen hundred and Sixty Eight by the Rev S. T. Bunting

Chromolith. of P.S. Duval, Phila.



Chromolith of P.S. Duval Phila.

John Melchour Hill died on the Twenty-sixth day of January Eighteen hundred and Seventy at 6.30 P.M. his funeral took place at the First Presbyterian Church on the Twenty Eight and the services were conducted by Rev Dr T. P. Moore. The following were some of his favorite Hymns and were sung at his funeral. "How firm a foundation ye Saints of the Lord." "I would not live always." "Come Holy Spirit Heavenly Dove." "Oh! for a closer walk with God." "Come Thou Fount of every blessing." Five Ninetieth Psalms.

Chromolith. of P.S. Duval Phila.