KATE ROSS HUDSON.

It was back in the year 1882 that Miss Kate Ross Hudson, of the Mt. View vicinity, first saw the light of day and it was on the 20th of April last that the wings of the death angel hovered over her and her beautiful life was brought to a close. Her departure to that home beyond the skies caused a gloom of sadness and despair to gather around her kindred and many friends, but heaven is brighter by the presence of such an artistic jewel. Until a few months before her death her health was all that could be desired, but that terrible malady, consumption, had laid its hand upon the fair flower which had only reached the age of sixteen sweet summers, and it soon faded from the earth.

She was the joy and comfort of her home and in her heart true love for humanity reigned supreme. A flower as charming as a morning rose and as pleasant as a summer breeze has been plucked from the home of her parents and transplanted in heaven, and they should find consolation in the fact that, in the word of holy writ is recorded the consoling words that God makes no mistakes in the chastening tribulation which he sends to us and afterward it shall work out the peaceable fruit of righteousness.

They are now members of the family of sorrow. Be comforted for soon the loving night watch will be over; pain, sickness, weakness and sorrow also. Soon the windows of their souls will no more be darkened and soon thou shall have nothing to be delivered for thy present loss shall turn into their eternal gain. The dews of the night of weeping (nature's tear drops) will come to sparkle like beautiful gems in the morning of immortality.

No longer oh parents be weeping
For Kate is happy and blest,
Her body so sweetly is sleeping,
So sweetly her soul is at rest.

It is indeed a sad thought to know that one so young and full of promise, and possessed of so many noble traits of character and tender impulses and so many womanly charms has been stricken down by the cold and icy hand of death; but leaves have their time to fall and flowers to wither at the north wind's breath.

Peace to her sleeping ashes and over her head may the raindrops fall gently and the sweet breezes blow softly, and around her grave may the flowers bloom brightly and may the birds sing sweetly and on it may the turf be ever soft and green.

I extend my profound sympathy to the bereaved parents and the image of their darling Kate, who was a perfect model of womanhood in its highest type that shall ever be deeply enshrined in my memory. Her loving aunt,
MYRTLE HUDSON.

The matrimonial atmosphere was richly perfumed last week with sweet exhalations from the orange blossoms. On Tuesday night of last week the train bore to our village Mr. Joshua Hudson, a handsome, intelligent young gentleman from Wilson county, accompanied by his sister, a beautiful young lady of perhaps sixteen summers, and it was soon whispered around that he had come to pick from our social circle Miss Allie Frizzell, one of our best and most beautiful young ladies, which conjecture proved true.

Thursday morning, Feb. 17, at the residence of the bride's father, at 8 o'clock, they met the Rev. J. G. Bolton at old Hyman's shrine, where they were united in the bonds of holy matrimony, the ceremony being witnessed by the family and Mr. and Mrs. Bascom Batts, immediately after which, the bride and groom, accompanied by Miss Lou Frizzell and Miss Hudson, repaired to the station and took the train for old Wilson. May their days on earth be many, and pleasures not a few.

DIED.

Bertha Ophelia Perry, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Perry, died at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, at the residence of Mr. Frank Prewett, West Deaderick avenue. The babe had been in declining health some weeks and the parents brought her from their home at Sherman, Texas hoping that the change of water and climate would restore her to health. Like a flower the babe drooped and the Master transplanted her to a brighter home beyond the skies. The funeral will take place from the residence, of Mr. Prewett at 8 o'clock this afternoon. Revs. G. T. Sullivan and Lovejoy will officiate. Interment at Hollywood Cemetery.

Mr. Joshua Hudson and sister paid a flying visit to Cedar Hill the past week, Joshua for the purpose of transplanting one of Cedar Hill's fair daughters in a more pleasant clime. Miss Lula Frizzell returned with them. We admire Mr. Hudson's selection.
