ALBERT W. JUSTICE, died at Brownsville, Prairie co., Ark., Oct. 28, 1866. He was a native of Tenn., and lately a resident of Woodbury, Cannon co. He served as a volunteer in the Confederate army during the whole of the late war. He was a member of Co. H, 23d Tenn. Infantry, Capt. Ott; his regiment was in Gen. Bushrod Johnson's Brigade, in the army of Tenn., until after the battle of Chickamauga, when he was transferred to the army of Virginia. During the siege of Petersburg, he was taken prisoner and sent to the prisoners' camp at Elmira, N. Y., where he remained near 8 months. After he was exchanged he returned to the army of Virginia, but was at Pittsborough, N. C., at the time of the surrender. Mr. Justice served his chosen cause faithfully to the end, and with honor to himself, and was much respected by his officers and comrades. He was in company of his brother and others on his way to Texas when taken sick, and suffered much during some four weeks, when he was released by death. His disease commenced in congestive chills, which, being complicated with other ailments, terminated fatally. He was about 22 years of age at his death.

Middle Tennessee papers will confer a favor by copying the above.

R. N. JUSTICE.
