gone away from mine ordinances, and have kept these. Return unto me, and I will unto you, saith the Lord of hosts. But Wherein shall we return?
 8 If Will a man rob God? Yerye have me. But ye say, Wherein have we thee? In tithes and offerings.
 9 Ye are cursed with a curse: for ye robbed me, even this whole nation.
 10 Bring ye all the tithes into the store-that there may be meat in my house, and me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts:
 will not open you the windows of heaven, pour you out a blessing, that there shall room enough to receive it.
 11 And I will rebuke the devourer for sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits ground; neither shall your vine cast her before the time in the field, saith the Lord of hosts.
 12 And all nations shall call you blessed:
 ye shall be a delightful land, saith the Lord of hosts.
 13 If Your words have been stout against saith the Lord. Yet ye say, What have spoken so much against thee?
 14 Ye have said, It is vain to serve God:
 what profit is it that we have kept his nance, and that we have walked mourn-before the Lord of hosts?
 15 And now we call the proud happy:
 they that work wickedness are set up, yea, that tempt God are even delivered.
 16 If Then they that feared the Lord often one to another: and the Lord heard and heard it: and a book of remembrance written before him for them that revere the Lord, and that thought upon his name.
 17 And they shall be mine, saith the Lord of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels, and I will spare them, as a man spareth his son that serveth him.
 18 Then shall ye return and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him that serveth God and him that serveth him not.
 CHAP. IV.
God's judgment on the wicked.
 FOR behold, the day cometh, that shall be as an oven; and all the proud, yea, and that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and that cometh shall burn them up, saith the Lord of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch.
 2 If But unto you that fear my name, shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall.
 3 And ye shall tread down the wicked:
 they shall be as chaff under the soles of your feet in the day that I shall do this, saith the Lord of hosts.
 4 If Remember ye the law of Moses my servant, which I commanded unto him in Horeb for Israel, with the statutes and judgments.
 5 If Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the coming of the great and dreadful day of the Lord: 6 And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse.
