Nicanor's head hanged upon the tower.

II. MACCABEES.

The day to be kept with solemnity.

Before CHRIST 161.

32 And shewed them vile Nicanor's head, and the hand of that blasphemer, which with proud brags he had stretched out against the holy temple of the Almighty.

the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which, in the Syrian tongue, is called Adar, the day before Mardocheus' day.

33 And when he had cut out the tongue of that ungodly Nicanor, he commanded that they should give it by pieces unto the fowls, and hang up the reward of his madness, before the temple.

37 Thus went it with Nicanor; and from that time forth the Hebrews had the city in their power. And here will I make an end.

34 So every man praised toward the heaven, the glorious Lord, saying, Blessed be he that hath kept his own place undefiled.

38 And if I have done well, and as is fitting the story, it is that which I desired; but if slenderly and meanly, it is that which I could attain unto.

35 He hanged also Nicanor's head upon the tower, an evident and manifest sign unto all of the help of the Lord.

39 For as it is hurtful to drink wine or water alone; and as wine mingled with water is pleasant, and delighteth the taste; even so speech finely framed delighteth the ears of them that read the story. And here shall be

36 And they ordained all with a common decree, in no case to let that day pass without solemnity, but to celebrate an end.
