DEATHS.

*Forrest Bryan Morton
died Dec. 25th. 1897
Sat. A.M.*

DIED.

MORTON—At 8:30 o'clock yesterday morning, Forrest Bryan, infant son of Turner H. and Nettie M. Morton, aged 5 weeks. Funeral from residence, No. 906 South street, at 3 o'clock this (Sunday) evening. Burial at Mt. Olivet. Carriages at Cornelius'.

Forrest Bryan Morton.

The many friends of Turner H. Morton, the Assistant Water Tax Assessor, were deeply grieved yesterday morning to learn of the sudden death of his infant son, Forrest Bryan. The child, although only 5 weeks old, was an unusually robust and interesting little fellow, and his death was entirely unexpected, and resulted from an attack of bronchial pneumonia. The parents are prostrated with grief and have the sympathy of a very large circle of friends in their bereavement. The funeral will take place this evening at 3 o'clock from the residence, No. 906 South street. Burial at Mt. Olivet.

THOMAS W. MORTON.

The death of Thomas William Morton, the 19-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Turner H. Morton, occurred at the family home, 903 Eighteenth avenue, south, Wednesday morning.

In addition to his parents, the young man is survived by one sister and one brother, James T. Morton of Mobile, Ala. Funeral services will be conducted at the residence at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon, followed by burial in Mt. Olivet.

OBITUARY.

The death, at an early hour this morning, of Nettie Meadows, wife of Turner H. Morton, while not unexpected, will prove quite a shock to her many friends and relatives. She had been in failing health for some time, and bore her suffering with that Christian fortitude which was the leading characteristic of her life. The deceased was the daughter of J. H. and R. A. Meadows, and was born in this city twenty-seven years ago. She was married to Turner H. Morton on March 13, 1894, and is survived by her husband and two children, besides her mother and five sisters. Mrs. Morton was not only the idol of the home circle, but was a devout member of the Centennial Baptist Church, and always took an active part in the church and Sunday school work.

The funeral will take place from her residence, 823 Central avenue, at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon; prayers at the house by Rev. Drs. W. J. Stewart and I. J. Van Ness. Interment will be at Mt. Olivet. Her husband, Turner Morton, has been connected with the city water department for the past ten years, and to him, the little children, and other relatives, is extended the deepest sympathy of many friends and acquaintances.

MORTON—At her residence, No. 823 Central avenue, at 2:45 o'clock this morning, Nettie Meadows, wife of Turner H. Morton, in the 27th year of her age. Prayers at residence at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow (Tuesday) afternoon, April 22, 1902, Revs. W. J. Stewart and I. J. Van Ness officiating. The following named friends will act as pallbearers: John T. Ahearn, D. F. Barr, Chas. Polak, L. A. Gupton, E. H. Wells, A. L. Wilholte, Richard Lavender and George Lytle, Cornelius & Co. directors.

SANK TO REST.

Lovable Life Ended When Mrs. T. H. Morton Passed Away.

After a lingering illness, Mrs. Turner H. Morton passed quietly to rest at 4 o'clock this morning at her residence, 823

Central avenue. She was the daughter of J. H. and R. A. Meadows, and was born in this city February 1, 1875, and was married to Mr. Morton March 13, 1894. He bereaved husband, two small children, mother and sisters were present at her bedside.

The deceased was a woman of most lovable character, always devoted to her home life, and yet active in church, Sunday-school and charitable work. She was a member of Centennial Baptist Church, and her sorrowing husband and family have the heartfelt sympathy of a large circle of friends and acquaintances in their sad bereavement.

The funeral will take place from the residence to-morrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Prayers at the house by Rev. W. J. Stewart and Rev. I. J. Van Ness, followed by interment at Mt. Olivet.

MRS. TURNER H. MORTON

Devout Christian Woman Passes Away.

Mrs. Nettie H. Morton, a most estimable woman, died at her home on Central avenue at 3:45 o'clock yesterday morning. She was born in this city on Feb. 1, 1875, and was the daughter of J. H. and R. A. Meadows. She was married to Turner H. Morton on March 13, 1894, who with two small children survive her. Mrs. Morton had been seriously ill for some time, and although frequently hopes were entertained of her ultimate recovery, yet despite the best medical skill, the loving ministrations of a devoted husband, mother and sisters, their efforts were unavailing, and the end came, with all her loved ones present. The deceased possessed those charms of person and character which endeared her not only to those of her own household, but inspired the love and admiration of all with whom she came in contact. She always took a deep interest in Sunday-school and charitable work, and was an earnest member of the Centennial Baptist Church. Her husband, Turner H. Morton, who has been Assistant Water Tax Assessor for a number of years, has a host of friends throughout the city, who extend to him and the bereaved family their deepest sympathy.

MORTON—At her residence, No. 823 Central avenue, at 3:45 o'clock yesterday morning, Nettie Meadows, wife of Turner H. Morton, in the 27th year of her age.

Prayers at residence at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon, April 22, 1902, Revs. W. J. Stewart and I. J. Van Ness officiating.

The following-named friends will act as pall-bearers: John T. Ahearn, D. F. Barr, Chas. Polak, L. A. Gupton, E. H. Wells, A. L. Wilhoite, Richard Lavender and George Lytle.

Cornelius & Co., directors.

MORTON—Saturday morning, June 24, at 10:25 o'clock at his home, 211 Russell Street, W. L. Morton. He is survived by two brothers, J. T. and N. H. Morton; one sister, Mrs. Will Hewlett of Birmingham, Ala.; nephew, J. T. Morton, Jacksonville, Fla.; and other nephews and nieces of Columbia, Tenn., and Nashville. Remains are at the funeral home of Phillips-Robinson Company, 2707 Gallatin Road, where funeral services will be conducted Monday morning at 10 o'clock by the Rev. John O. Ensor. The following will please serve as pallbearers: Dr. M. M. Harvill, G. T. Underwood, N. F. Howse, G. C. Collins, M. E. Griffin, J. C. Glasscock, John Kauculis, and G. W. Pegram. Interment Mt. Olivet Cemetery. Please omit flowers. Phillips-Robinson Company, 2707 Gallatin Road, in charge. Phone 3-1700, Old Hickory 10.

VETERAN CITY EMPLOYEE DIES

Heart Attack Is Fatal to Thomas D. Morton After Brief Illness.

Thomas D. Morton, 60, an employe of the city for the past thirty years, died Tuesday at 6:30 a. m. at his home, 713½ Woodland street, following a sudden heart attack.

Mr. Morton had been at his office at the city hall Saturday, and although he had not been feeling well for several days, his death was unexpected.

For the past five years Mr. Morton had been associated with the city comptroller's office as abutting property clerk, and had charge of the collection of street, curbing and sidewalk assessments. During his employ by the city Mr. Morton had become popular with his fellow workers and had won many friends in his official relations.

Previous to his association with the comptroller's office he had worked in the city waterworks department for a number of years.

Although he was a native of White Bluff, Mr. Morton came to Nashville when he was quite young and received his education in Nashville schools. For several years he had taught a Sunday school class at Centennial Baptist church.

Surviving him are three brothers, W. L. Morton, J. T. Morton and N. H. Morton, all of Nashville, and one sister, Mrs. Will Hewlett of Birmingham, Ala.

Funeral services will be conducted Wednesday at 3 p. m. from the chapel of Dorris, Karsch & Co. by Dr. W. F. Powell, pastor of the First Baptist church.

Honorary pallbearers will be James Kerr, Thomas McIntyre, T. R. Vivrett, S. F. Mosby, Andrew Brown, Charles G. Akin, George Pegram, Walter White, J. C. Vaughan, Fred Holmes, Abe Kanaday, Vernon Sharp and I. S. Roberts. Active pallbearers will be George J. Tompkins, W. B. Cook, Mayor Hilary E. Howse, Charles Polak, Capt. George Reyer and C. H. Smith. Burial will be in Mt. Olivet cemetery.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. MATTHEW.

CHAPTER I.

¹ The genealogy of Christ from Abraham to Joseph. ¹⁸ He was conceived by the Holy Ghost, and born of the Virgin Mary when she was espoused to Joseph. ¹⁹ The angel satisfieth the misdeeming thoughts of Joseph, and interpreteth the names of Christ.

THE book of the generation of Jesus Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham.

2 Abraham begat Isaac; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat Judas and his brethren;

3 And Judas begat Phares and Zara of Thamar; and Phares begat Esrom; and Esrom begat Aram;

4 And Aram begat Aminadab; and Aminadab begat Naasson; and Naasson begat Salmon;

5 And Salmon begat Booz of Rachab; and Booz begat Obed of Ruth; and Obed begat Jesse;

6 And Jesse begat David the king; and David the king begat Solomon of her that had been the wife of Urias;

7 And Solomon begat Roboam; and Roboam begat Abia; and Abia begat Asa;

8 And Asa begat Josaphat; and Josaphat begat Joram; and Joram begat Ozias;

9 And Ozias begat Joatham; and Joatham begat Achaz; and Achaz begat Ezekias;

10 And Ezekias begat Manasses; and Manasses begat Amon; and Amon begat Josias;

11 And Josias begat Jechonias and his brethren, about the time they were carried away to Babylon:

12 And after they were brought to Babylon, Jechonias begat Salathiel; and Salathiel begat Zorobabel;

13 And Zorobabel begat Abiud; and Abiud begat Eliakim; and Eliakim begat Azor;

14 And Azor begat Sadoc; and Sadoc begat Achim; and Achim begat Eliud;

15 And Eliud begat Eleazar; and Eleazar begat Matthan; and Matthan begat Jacob;

16 And Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born Jesus, who is called Christ.

17 So all the generations from Abraham to David are fourteen generations; and from David until the carrying away into Babylon are fourteen generations; and from the carrying away into Babylon unto Christ are fourteen generations.

18 ¶ Now the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy Ghost.

19 Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not willing to make her a public example, was minded to put her away privily.

20 But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost.

21 And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins.

22 Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying,

23 Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us.

24 Then Joseph being raised from sleep did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife:

25 And knew her not till she had brought forth her firstborn son; and he called his name JESUS.

CHAPTER II.

¹ The wise men out of the east are directed to Christ by a star. ¹¹ They worship him, and offer their presents. ¹⁴ Joseph fleeth into Egypt, with Jesus and his mother. ¹⁶ Herod slayeth the children: ²⁰ himself dieth. ²³ Christ is brought back again into Galilee to Nazareth.

NOW when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod
