Shelbyville. Dec. 10th 1863.

I Laws - the written application of the following persons - in a certain Miscellaneous - for a Military Commission to ascertain damages for injuries done by the Federal Army - To wit:

Mrs. Sophia A. Lytle, widow & Executrix of William T. Lytle deceased -

Mrs. Eliza L. Collins - widow of John M. Collins

Mrs Ann P. Laws widow & Executrix of Laws deceased:

The claim - for damages is large - proved of each of the above - The first named is much the largest. They all set out - their written statement - that they are loyal & always have been to the Govmnt of the United States and remain so to their respective statements.

I Laws also - The remain statements of the following persons one Fulkerson to wit

M. Hill - of Coffee County.

James Price of Coffee County

Mrs Mary A. Sutton &

Dennis Mahony - claiming damages. They each state they are loyal. & claim a military Commission.

One commission could investigate the cases at Murfreesboro & one at Fulkerson or the Same commission could do both which was Intended but I sent autocrat to the service.

Let Col Galbraith come forward - the case of Gen Thomas or Gen Grant - for now, that I saw the action of the one or the other, or any but the Genl to order the commission.

The parties all agreed - the correspondence to be withdrawn - signed for Thomas.
