Genl Rousseau April 10th 1864

my negro man Jim Hodge came to my House and cut up at a desperate rate disputed my word five or six times, drew a little waggon Tongue to strike me with & said he asked me no odds- and that he would have my hill cleaned up in less than three days I would like to have him arrested and carried to Nashville & put in the service of the Government, or deal with him as you see proper

State of Tennessee } This day personally appeared Bedford County } before me Wm Galbreath an acting Justice of sd County, Alexander Hodge and made oath that the statements above are true & correct, and that he is now & always has been Loyal to the Government of the United States.
