State of Tennessee

Citizens William Blount and William Cocke commissioned Senators to represent this State in the Congress of the United States. April the 2nd 1796.—

William Maclin Commissioned Secretary of State for four years, April 9th 1796

John McNairy, Esquire of Davidson County Mero District, Archibald Roan Esquire of Hamilton District and Willie Blount Esquire of Knox County Hamilton District were Commissioned Judges of the Superior Courts of Law and Equity in and for this State during good behaviour, on the 11th April, 1796.—

Landon Carter Esquire Commissioned Treasurer in and for the Districts of Washington and Hamilton for two years April 11th 1796.—

George Smith licensed to practise as an attorney at law, in the several county courts of Pleas and Quarter sessions in this State May 13th 1797.

James C. Maclin of the County of Davidson, commissioned Adjutant General of the State, during his good behaviour, May 16th 1797.

Pleasant M. Miller, licensed to practise as an attorney at law, in the several County courts of Pleas and quarter sessions, in this State, June 20th 1797.

Samuel L. Crawford, licensed to practise as an attorney at law, in the several County courts of Pleas and quarter sessions, in this State, August 20th 1797.

John C. Hamilton commissioned Attorney for the State in the district of Mero, during good behaviour behaviour September 22nd 1797. vice Boiwd Tatum who declined.

Robert Searcy commissioned treasurer of the Distrct of Mero for two years, September 26th 1797.

David Campbell esquire of the District of Hamilton commissioned one of the Judges of the Superior courts of law and equity in and for this State, during good behaviour, October 10th 1797.

Hugh Lawson White licensed to practise as an attorney at law in the several courts of law and equity in this State. October 11th 1797.

Moses Fisk licensed to practise as an attoney at law in the several county courts of pleas and Quarter sessions in this state, October 12th 1797.

The Honorable Andrew Jackson esquire commissioned a Senator to represent this State in the Congress of the United States for the term of six years October 19th 1797.

The Honorable Joseph Anderson commissioned a Senator to represent this State in the Congress of the United States for the remainder of the term, which our late Senator William Blount had drawn. October 19th 1797.

Howel Tatum esquire commissioned one of the Judges of the Superior courts of law and equity in and for this State during good behaviour October 28th 1797.

William Miles of the County of Robertson, commissioned first Major of the regiment of cavalry of the District of Mero, during good behaviour, October 28th 1797.

Jesse Wharton licensed to practise as an attorney at law in the several county Courts of pleas and quarter sessions in this state April 11th 1790.

Landon Carter commissioned Treasurer of the districts of Washington and Hamilton for two years April 11th 1798.—

Lachlan M'Intosh licensed to practise as an attorney at law in the several courts of law and equity in this state, June 20th 1790.

James Robertson late Brigadier General of the district of Mero, James Stuart esquire Speaker of the House of Representatives, and Lachlan M'Intosh esquire of Knoxville Commissioned Agents on the part of the state of Tennessee, with full power to all, any two, or either of them to attend the treaty, which the President of the United States has authorized to be held with the Cherokees by Alfred Moore, John Steele, and George Walton esquires Commissioners on the part of the United States; and there to state the obligations of the United States to extinguish the Cherokee claim to such lands as have been granted to individuals by the state of North Carolina, and in all things to represent the interest of the state of Tennessee June 23d 1790.—