INTRODUCTION

These papers were copied from records owned by Mrs. Hamilton Gayden, Jr., Nashville, Tennessee. Much of the data in the collection were compiled by Anne Spotswood Dandridge in 1906-1907 for Ida Hamilton Thompson (Mrs. Henry Dickinson) and by Mrs. Albert Ewing, Jr., in 1945, for Mary Thompson Orr (Mrs. Samuel H. Orr).

The materials in this finding aid measure .42 linear feet. There are no restrictions on the materials. Single photocopies of unpublished writings in the Ida Hamilton Thompson Dickinson Collection may be made for purposes of scholarly research.

SCOPE AND CONTENT

This genealogical collection, spanning the years from ca. 1660 to 1945, and containing approximately 70 items (444 photocopied pages), is composed of genealogical data, charts, and correspondence, with documentation in the form of copies of deeds, census reports, maps, marriage records, parish records, wills, and excerpts from published histories, etc.

Families for whom there is genealogical information includes the Bedingers of Pennsylvania and Virginia; Boones of Maryland; Claibornes of Virginia; Howards of Maryland; Morgans of Virginia; Searingens of Holland, Maryland, and Virginia; Thompsons of Maryland, Delaware, North Carolina, Virginia, and Tennessee; Vaughns of Davidson County, Tennessee; and Whites of Knox County, Tennessee. Many descendants of these families settled in Davidson County, Tennessee.

The data in the collection was compiled largely by Ann Spotwood Dandridge in 1907 for Ida Hamilton Thompson, and by Mrs., Albert Ewing, Jr., in 1945, for Mary Thompson Orr.
