INTRODUCTION

This collection is centered around Michael Campbell (1757-1830), Revolutionary War soldier, physician and state legislator of Bardstown, Kentucky, and Nashville, Tennessee. The papers were given to the Archives and Manuscripts Section by Mr. Charles W. Jones, Jr., Aiken, South Carolina. The collection consists of .42 linear feet of shelf space, and numbers approximately 65 items and 2 volumes. Single photocopies may be made for purposes of scholarly research.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The Michael Campbell Papers, containing approximately 65 items and two volumes, and spanning the years 1797-1914, consist of various accounts, correspondence, land records, poetry, and legal documents.

Campbell, who lived in Bardstown, Kentucky and Nashville, Tennessee, was very active in the slave trading business, and there are a number of slave bills of sale dating from 1802 to 1847. There is also an account of items bought to equip a slave in 1797 and a receipt for a slave.

There are a number of letters in the collection, written to and from Michael Campbell as well as other members of the Campbell family. Among the subjects covered in the correspondence are land transactions, the cotton, sugar, and tobacco markets, religion, and politics.

Other items of interest in the collection include deeds and other land records, an autograph album, a volume of poetry, a military pass issued in Nashville, and an indenture for a servant.
