SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

Mary Trotter Shields Davies Scrapbooks span the period 1943-1972. The scrapbooks consist of airline tickets, cards, certificates, correspondence, magazines, menus, newspaper clippings, pamphlets, and printed materials.

Mary Trotter Shields Davies was involved in the Business and Professional Women's Club of Tennessee. A large percentage of this collection is concentrated on activities relating to the club. In her professional life, Mary Trotter Shields Davies worked for the State of Tennessee as a secretary for various departments. During her career, she involved herself in Tennessee Democratic politics, working on various campaigns in Tennessee. Another large percentage of the books is dedicated to politics in Tennessee.

Also of interest in the collection are the newspaper clippings and magazine articles concerning various Presidents of the United States. An entire scrapbook is dedicated to the assassination of John F. Kennedy. Mary Trotter Shields Davies was also involved in campaigns for Presidential candidates.

The collection also includes interesting brochures on various places that Mrs. Davies visited. Mary Trotter Shields Davies traveled extensively and kept information on most places that she visited.

The Mary Trotter Shields Davies Scrapbooks are an interesting source of information concerning politics of the 1950's and 1960's. They are also a good source of information concerning the Business and Professional Women's Club of Tennessee and its activities.
