SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

Record Group 205, Governor's Office, Executive Assistant Jim Hall's Papers, spans the period 1971-1993. The collection consists of various office files relating to the function of Jim Hall's office concentrating on the years 1986-1991.

The position of Executive Assistant to the Governor is considered a cabinet level position, equal in importance to the position of Commissioner. The Executive Assistant position is appointed by the governor. As Executive Assistant to the Governor, Jim Hall had to fulfill many different duties relating to the governor's office, including attending functions on behalf of the governor. In this position, Jim Hall was responsible for aiding the governor in policy making decisions.

The material in the collection is concentrated on the "Drug Free Tennessee" effort and the famous "Listening to Tennessee" tour that Governor McWherter, and his cabinet participated in during his first year in office.
